WHO WE ARE

StonCor Africa manufactures the Pro-Struct range which has built its reputation over the past 50 years with quality Protective Coatings and Structural Adhesives. The range has grown and been improved upon with our integration into a global group and includes Concrete Repairs, Grouting, Waterproofing systems and numerous specialty products that all pursue the end goal of strengthening and protecting concrete and masonry structures.

The Pro-Struct team are able to provide customers with detailed specifications including specific application methods for all types of projects. The Pro-Struct technical service department provides expert training on site and also conducts regular training workshops at our premises in Midrand for contractors and when required, specific training on difficult applications before actual installation commences.
